

If kids can go to camp, why can't you? Now you can have all the fun without the mosquitoes.

Grants Camp

Two action-packed days: August 12-13, 9 am – 4 pm

Rochester, NY – Brighton Town Hall, 2300 Elmwood Avenue, Rochester, NY 14618

Cost: $240 per person, includes materials, lunch, parking, and marshmallows (group discounts available)

This camp is designed to demystify the grantwriting process for entry- and mid-level grantwriters. Using a combination of presentations and group activities, you will learn how to provide grantmakers with the information they want. Camp materials include Microsoft Word and Excel document templates that you can customize for use with your own grant applications. Certificates of completion are provided.

Camp activities include:

- Capture the flag
- Tips for planning programs prior to writing grants
- Research grants and approaching grantmakers before applying
- How to start a fire with old grant applications and a piece of glass
- Preparing information commonly asked for in grant applications
- Arts and crafts with macaroni and a glue gun

Instructor: Nonprofit Works lead scout, Paul Mastrodonato, has helped nonprofits obtain funding from foundations, corporations, and government agencies for over 18 years. Paul's camp style is known for being informative, interactive, relaxed, and fun.

Tent space is limited and pre-registration is required.
